WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1933
THE DYNAMITE CONSPIRACY.
THE MOST HIDEOUS PLOT OF MODERN TIMES.
Norman to Turn Informer.
TRIAL OF LORD CAVENTISH RE-OPENED.

London, April 8.—On Saturday another arrest was made in connection with the conspiracy to destroy life and buildings. The man apprehended is named John Kirtan, recently arrived here from the United States. He refused to submit to a peaceful arrest, and made some resistance. He was trying to escape when arrested. From papers found on the prisoner there is little doubt that Kirtan was selected to commit actual deeds of destruction.
A man named Ansbury, twenty-one years of age, was arrested to-day at a hotel in the vicinity of Waterloo bridge, just arrived from America. The police are said to possess knowledge of what is likely to be the most hideous and stupendous plot of modern times. Ansbury, arrived from New York a fortnight ago. The police have been watching him. Letters found on Gallagher and Norman connect Ansbury with the conspiracy.
Norman will probably be transferred from the dock to the witness box on Thursday. Millbank prison is guarded by soldiers.
Two large jars of nitro-glycerine have reached Cork from Glasgow, addressed to O'Heiler. The police discovered a quantity of explosives freshly buried in a field near Cork.
It is believed that seventy or eighty persons are concerned in the dynamite conspiracy, the principal leader being among the recently arrested. The police believe they have secured nearly all the consignments of nitro-glycerine now in London.
DUBLIN, April 8.—Evidence has been obtained concerning the statements of Carey, the informer, that Tyson and "Number one" are identical and that he was connected with the Phoenix Park murder.
Cork, April 8.—A laborer named Deasy was drowned here last evening. It is supposed he was murdered for political reasons.
DUBLIN, April 8.—Arrangements have been completed for the trial of the prisoners concerned in the Phoenix Park murders. Joe Brady will be tried first. The Crown lawyers have determined to resist any postponement of the trial.
MANCHESTER, April 7.—It is rumored that threats are being made to destroy the Manchester town hall by means of explosives. The authorities in consequence have taken great precautions to prevent the destruction of the building. The mayor of Birmingham, fearing an effort to release Whitehead, has asked for and obtained troops to assist in guarding the jail in which he is confined. A large number of Fusiliers have been discovered at Salford and forwarded to Sir Wm. Harcourt, Home Secretary.
LIVERPOOL, April.—Deasey and Flanagan arrested recently for bringing infernal machines and explosives into the country from Cork, were arraigned. The Crown announces its intention to ask that the prisoners be committed on the charge of having explosives in their possession, with felonious intent, and also on a charge of conspiracy, with the view of felony with various persons known and unknown to the Crown. Witnesses deposed that the box Deasey had when arrested contained materials for making explosives, and also a preparation of dynamite and parts of an infernal machine consisting of an apparatus by which sulphuric acid could be allowed to slowly soak through into a mixture, the principle element of which was chloric perch. It was explained that with this combination an explosion could be produced within the maximum time of 40 minutes. The machine was exactly similar in construction to those used in Glasgow and in the attempt in the office of the London Times. Deasey and Flanagan were committed for trial at the assizes, bail being refused. The prisoners reserved their defence.
DUBLIN, April 9.—Joe Brady, Timothy Kelley, Pat Delaney, Thos. Coffey, Daniel Curley and Pitharris, known as "Skin-the-Goat," the men charged with the Phoenix Park murders and other crimes, were placed on trial to-day. They were conveyed from Kilmainham prison to the Green street Court House at 8 o'clock this morning under a strong escort of policemen. Special measures have been taken to insure the safety of the court building. Suspicious looking men who resembled Irish Americans have been seen in the Phoenix Park and other parts of Dublin during the last few days. Detectives are watching their movements closely.

Mr. Justice O'Brien presides. The Grand Jury found a true bill against Joe Brady, whose trial will begin to-morrow.
Brady, in the dock, wore a careless and defiant demeanor, as at the hearing.
The authorities have information that there are in the city 2,000 Fenians who have no connection with the Inner Circle.
A famous named Haris concerned in the murder conspiracy, for which eight young men were arrested on Friday, was captured while attempting to escape to America. The arrests are believed to be for the murder of Justice Herbert at Castle Island.
There were twenty-four arrests to-day in the outskirts of Cork and Limerick and many important documents were seized.
The grand jury found true bills for murder against Joseph and Lawrence Hanlon, Wm. Maloney, Patrick Delaney, — Fagan and Joseph Mullist.
LONDON, April 9.—The Government bill to be introduced in the Commons by Sir Wm. Harcourt relative to explosives, provides that the maximum penalty for causing an explosion by which life or property is imperilled shall be life imprisonment. An attempt to cause an explosion or the making or keeping of explosives with intent to cause an explosion is made punishable by imprisonment for twenty years, and the unlawful making or keeping of explosives under suspicious circumstances is to be punishable by fourteen years' imprisonment. All accessories of such crimes are to be treated as principals.

A Cow on the Track.
It happened on a railroad train which was going—well, it wasn't exactly a lightning express. The engineer whistled "down brakes."
"What's the trouble, conductor?" excitedly asked a passenger.
"A cow on the track," coolly responded the conductor. The man was satisfied. Shortly afterwards "down brakes" was again whistled.
"What's the trouble now?" cried the same passenger.
"A cow on the track," was the reply.
"Great heavens!" cried the man. "haven't we caught up with that cow yet?"

stated to the dome. My place was about halfway up, and I saw Gasparo go up still higher. When we were all ready, we crept through the windows up to small boards hanging by ropes. Each one was given a lighted torch, with which he was to light the lamps that he passed as the ropes were let down. After I had lit all my lamps, I looked around at the scene. Suddenly I felt my rope shake, and looking up, saw a man putting his torch to it. Almighty God! It was Gasparo. With the agility of a cat I climbed up the rope, put my torch in the villain's face, and caught hold of the rope above where it was on fire. Gasparo, blinded and wild with pain, gave a terrible yell and rolled down like a stone. Through all the humming of the living ocean beneath I heard the dull thud as my enemy struck the pavement. I had hardly recovered my breath, when we were drawn up again. I told the director what I had gone through. The truth of my story was proved by the fact that the rope, and I was given money enough to leave home. Since then I have had many adventures but never found myself in such terrible company as on the dome of St. Peter's on that fatal Easter.—Translated from the German by H. Morse.

SOURIS CITY NEWS.

Strengthening the Bridge—An Early Spring—The River—A New Enterprise.

Mr. W. J. Scott, of Souris City, was in town to-day and took out with him the sheet iron and other material for sheeting the pier and breakwater of the new bridge at that point. The work is being done for the County by Mr. H. Goodman. Four blacksmiths will work night and day till the job is finished. The iron is in plates 3 x 8, and 2 inch thick. The bridge will also be equipped with wrought iron spikes.

Snow at Souris City is all off the ground, having disappeared on Monday.

Farmers are ready for an unusually early season, as there is very little frost in the ground.

The river is showing signs of a break-up, and it is not likely there will be as much water this spring as last.

A new industry is to be started at Souris City. A Mr. Gregory, of Wingham, Ont., contemplates the erection of a new grist and sawing mill, four stories in height, two of stone and two of wood. The mill will be situated with five runs of stone and two sets of rollers, and will have a flouring capacity of 500 barrels per day.

Emerson Agricultural Society has received in all from the Provincial Government $141.35.

Miss Boston, stepdaughter of Collector Bradley at Emerson, is to be married shortly to Mr. Baldwin, of Norway.

The International ass. Joe. Carney, of Emerson, who has been west on a trip, found Regina dull, but Brandon booming.

The Brandon Daily Mail.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1906

BRANDON BUDGET.

Mr. W. J. Scott, of South City, was in town yesterday.

QUICKLY BEING. are having a mammoth sign painted on the side of their building facing 6th Street.

Mr. Peters, agent of the C. P. R., at Brandon, went down last afternoon to attend the grand railway ball at Winnipeg.

As stated in Saturday's Mail, Mr. Bennett, Government Immigrant Agent, returned yesterday from his visit to the Eastern Townships. He expects to have his hands full from this visit.

We regret to learn that a sad accident occurred yesterday at Rapid City. Mr. Mulherry, an old man seventy-five years of age, while feeding his horse, was knocked down and trampled on so badly that he died soon after.

JACK HOWARD, Assistant Postmaster, returned yesterday from a visit to his friends at White, Ont. He has just arrived in time, as Mr. Kavanagh and his clerks are hard to the utmost of their industry with the daily increasing mails.

At the Brandon House—D. H. Miller, Wm. Noble, Eugene, C. E. Feltz, W. D. Springer, F. A. Douglas, J. S. Douglas, W. C. Jones, E. L. Kirk, Strafford, Chas. Hagg, South City, A. Barnes, J. G. Allen, Winnipeg.

The streets in the city and neighborhood are now quite bare, the snow having entirely disappeared, and farmers coming in with loads of hay and grain, and the roads leading into town are rapidly breaking up, and the regular spring season of water and mud is at hand.

The new set in logical working order yesterday. The new set of umbrellas, signs, etc., have been put in place, and the new set of signs, etc., have been put in place, and the new set of signs, etc., have been put in place.

"Ziktooyaym" is the name of one of the Indians who will give testimony tomorrow, as to the manner in which he was delivered by the white man into the use of the feathered bow. In English his name is "The man who was round in the fire." The name of the Indian who was round in the fire is "The man who was round in the fire." The name of the Indian who was round in the fire is "The man who was round in the fire."

POLICE COURT PENCILINGS.

Field Day Among the Aborigines.

There was a large attendance yesterday at the trial held by the Police Magistrate. The case against the man who was round in the fire was heard, and the man who was round in the fire was found guilty and sentenced to fifteen days in jail at hard labor.

The first case called was that of Clay against Henderson, partners of which were given yesterday. Henderson pleaded guilty and was sentenced to fifteen days in jail at hard labor.

The charge against parties for selling liquor to Indians, were then taken up, the defendants being Port, Warren, Gabriel and Isaac Robinson and wife.

The first case gone into was that against Robinson, who pleaded not guilty. Henry Jacob was sworn as interpreter, and through him Moses David deposed that he had sawed wood for Robinson and received in pay $1 in money and $1 in whiskey. Robinson was found guilty and fined $50 and costs, or two months in jail. Mr. Sifton appeared for Mr. Henderson, the Indian agent, and Mr. Henderson for defendant.

After recess, another case against Robinson was given into, by the witness Warren, a pure-blooded Dakota Sioux Indian, with a head of hair like the mane of a Blackfoot aborigine struck by lightning. He said he was told by other Indians that they could get whiskey at the black house over the river by sawing wood. He went and saw Robinson, whom he identified, and bargained to cut the wood for $2. He received pay from prisoners who gave him $1, but refused to give him the other dollar, and made him take whiskey, "pointing out her shoulder," which he understood to mean that she had been so instructed by her husband. He got the whiskey and with another Indian drank it and it made him drunk. He identified Mrs. Robinson "by her blanket" and said he saw another woman with red hair cut short, and the little girl in court. Chief McMillan was called and deposed that on the moon before the last there was such a person as described, with the forementioned amorphous locks stopping at the black house over the river, but he believed she had since gone to Portage la Prairie.

Mr. Henderson claimed that the information was invalid, and that the red man with the hair was an incompetent witness, but the magistrate found Robinson guilty and fined him $50 and costs, with the same alternative as in the previous case.

A case was brought against Mrs. Robinson, in which it was proposed to offer the same evidence as in the previous case, but this was discharged by the magistrate.

The case against Gabriel was then gone into, and the evidence of the Indian flowstone taken. The magistrate took this decision as adjourned till this morning.

"English Nell" is, we believe to mortgage her house to pay her husband's fine.

Ziktooyaym and his drunken dirty comrades left the court, looking exceedingly thirsty, and seeking for more wood to saw, and fresh fire water vessels to conquer.

THE POLICE MAGISTRATE.

Mr. Sifton's Movement in the Council.

In the Council on Monday night Ald. Sifton introduced the following motion:

Moved by Ald. Sifton, seconded by Ald. Smart,

That, Whereas, by Sec. 151 of the Act to incorporate the City of Brandon, it is enacted, that all fines and penalties imposed, levied and collected by the Mayor or Aldermen, or by the Police Magistrate, appointed under this Act, shall be, unless otherwise provided, paid into the city exchequer, and form a fund for the payment of the salary of the Police Magistrate, and maintaining the Police Force of the said city.

And Whereas, Mr. L. M. Fortier, claiming to be Police Magistrate of the said city, and while acting as such, has imposed, levied and collected a number of fines and penalties which he neglects and refuses to pay into the city exchequer, by the said section of the said Act.

Therefore, in order to ensure the said fine, and penalties to the said city, be it resolved that this Council request the Mayor or one or more of the Aldermen in his absence, or at his request, to attend at the Police Office daily, or at such times, or for such periods as may be necessary for the disposal of the business brought before him or them as a Justice or Justices of the Peace.

And it is therefore also resolved, that the City Solicitor be instructed to demand from the said Police Magistrate the fines and penalties so imposed, levied and collected by him, and in default of payment by the said Police Magistrate, to take immediate steps for the collection of the same.

And it is further resolved, that the Clerk of the Council do notify the said Police Magistrate, that as the Council has provided for the due and proper disposal of all police business, the necessity of his attendance at the police office for this purpose is hereby dispensed with.

The Mayor said that this was a serious matter, and he would suggest that it be left to stand as a notice of motion. He asked the Clerk of the Police Court if he could give any information as to the fees collected by the Magistrate.

Mr. McMillan said last month there had been $186.65. This had been paid in by him but left $77 still in the Magistrate's hands. About three weeks ago Mr. Fortier had asked him if the fees were deposited to his (the Magistrate's) credit. He replied not, when the Magistrate stated that he would collect the fees himself, which he had done since.

Ald. Smart asked what had been done with these fees.

Mr. McMillan understood the Magistrate deposited them to his own credit.

Ald. Foster asked if the Magistrate furnished any security.

The Mayor understood not.

The resolution was ordered to stand over as a notice of motion.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.
